people of our city and carry out their wishes whenever it is humanly possible. On controversial issues my stand has always been to refer the matter to the people.
"In the past few months, many of our outstanding citizens have approached me and urged me to run for the office of mayor. They, as you can readily see, have helped me make this decision and I will not let them down. God willing, I will do my level best to win the election and carry on the quality of work which will make our good city a better one."

Former Steelworker
Now engaged in the real estate and insurance profession, Drale spent 20 years at Columbia Steel where at one time he was vice president of Local 1414 of the United Steelworkers of America.
His wife, Frances, operates Fran's Letter Shop and shares offices with Drale in Torrance. The couple has two sons, Michael, 20, a student at El Camino College, and Stephen, 12, a sixth grader at Evelyn Carr Elementary School; and one daughter, Patty, 11, a fifth grader at Carr.

He is a member of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, an active Shriner, member of the E. & A.M. Lodge 447 of Torrance, and a member of the Torrance Elks.
Drale was re-elected to the council two years ago and still has two years to serve on his current term.
Changes Readied
Terms expiring on the council this year include those of Willys G. Blount and Albert Isen. Also at stake in the April election will be the mayor's post and an additional council seat, approved by the voters at a special election last Oct. 29. Assemblyman Vincent H. Thomas reported yesterday that he was prepared to intro-

Jamboree Set At South Bay

A rip-roaring western extravaganza will be held at the South Bay Shopping Center, 174th and Hawthorne, Jan. 30 through Feb. 1, according to Peter T. Spilos, Merchants Assn. president.
Many western and country style TV and recording stars will entertain daily and small fry will be treated to free rides around the center in a horse-drawn stagecoach and haywagon. There also will be a "hold-up" by a gang of "desperados."
A bandits' ransom in prizes will be given away at daily shows and tickets for drawings will be available at any of the 37 stores in the center. There will be loot for the kiddies adjudged to be wearing the best western costume, while their elders will vie for prizes in a square dance competition.

FARM INFLUENCE
About 65 per cent of Mexico's people are farmers.

Obituaries

George W. Denney
George W. Denney, 65, resident of Torrance for 32 years before moving to Porterville three years ago, died Friday in Porterville.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in Halverson-Leavell Chapel, with the Rev. Donald Shelby officiating. Burial was in Pacific Crest Cemetery.

A native of Tennessee, he came to Torrance in 1922 and retired from Columbia Steel in March, 1954. He and his wife moved to a farm near Porterville after his retirement. The Denneys celebrated their 46th wedding anniversary last year.

Survivors include his widow, Lillie; daughters, Bessie Moore, Gardena, and Helen Trust, Redondo Beach; brothers, Oscar, Sam, Tom and Hershel, all of Tennessee; granddaughters, Ellie Mae Morse, Linda and Sylvia Trust, and Sharon Sue Bowen; grandsons, Melvin Trust and Robert Bowen, and nephew, J. T. Denney, Torrance.

Mrs. Ella Brumfield
Final rites for Mrs. Ella Brumfield, 76, mother of Dr. J. C. Brumfield, pastor of the South Bay Baptist Church, will be held today in Fresno.

For the past three months, she had made her home with the local pastor at 21909 Palos Verdes Blvd. A native of Missouri, she had lived in Fresno for many years. She was a member of the Memorial Baptist Church there. White and Day Mortuary handled local arrangements.

Survivors include five sons, Dr. James C. Harold E., Sidney S., Edgar C., and Paul J. Brumfield; a daughter, Mrs. Mildred Johnson; 17 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Fred Leroy Lane
Final rites were held Saturday for Fred Leroy Lane, 69, a disabled veteran, in Stone and Myers Chapel, with the Rev. John L. Taylor officiating. He died Dec. 29 in Harbor General Hospital.

Burial was in Ft. Rosecrans Cemetery.

Survivors include a daughter, Barbara L. Foster, Lynwood; sons, Troy, La Habra, and Keith, Panama Canal Zone; sisters, Beuna Stine and Ada Ober; and a brother, Frank Lane.

Cathy Lea Maxwell
Private cremation rites were held for Cathy Lea Maxwell, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Maxwell, 1215 Felbar Ave., at Pacific Crest Cemetery. The little girl died Saturday at Torrance Memorial Hospital. Stone and Myers handled arrangements.

TERM CHANGE
The word "plumbing" once meant working in lead but since that time it has come to include most of the other metals in current use for service pipes in homes and buildings.
